

INSTITUTE for HEALTHCARE ADVANCEMENT

IHA's 17th Annual Health Literacy Conference

Health Literacy Award Nomination Form

Each year, the Institute for Healthcare Advancement honors people that have made outstanding achievements in health literacy by presenting them an IHA Health Literacy Award. Award winners are honored at a special luncheon, held at IHA's Annual Health Literacy Conference on May 10, 2018.

Eligibility Requirements: To qualify to win, the project must:

1. Empower people to better health
2. Address an aspect of health literacy
3. Aim to solve an identified healthcare problem
4. Be current with a completion date within the past 2 years
5. Impact or have the potential to affect the greater healthcare community.

Instructions: Please email your completed application to Rachel at rroberts@iha4health.org by 5 pm Pacific Time on February 16, 2018. Award winners will be notified by March 9, 2018.

Contact Information

Instructions: Provide your contact information below. We will contact you if we have any questions about your nomination.

First name: _____ Last name: _____

Credentials: _____ Title: _____

Institution / Organization: _____

Street address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip Code: _____

Email: _____ Phone number: _____

Are you nominating yourself?

- Yes (Skip to the section, "About the Project.")
- No (Continue to the section, "About the Nominee.")

INSTITUTE for HEALTHCARE ADVANCEMENT

IHA's 17th Annual Health Literacy Conference
Health Literacy Award Nomination Form

About the Nominee

First name: _____ Last name: _____

Credentials: _____ Title: _____

Institution / Organization: _____

Street address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip Code: _____

Email: _____ Phone number: _____

About the Project

Project title: _____

Target population: _____

Award category (select 1 that best represents the project you are nominating):

- Innovative Programs: Projects that demonstrate innovative, practical, and effective solutions to addressing limited health literacy.
- Published Materials: Written materials (digital or printed) that contribute to effective communication with those who have limited health literacy.
- Research: Studies using well-defined methodologies that further illustrate the relationship between literacy skills and health outcomes, cost, or disparities; or present evidence of effective health literacy interventions.
- International: Efforts outside of the United States that empower people to better health through improved health literacy.

INSTITUTE for HEALTHCARE ADVANCEMENT

IHA's 17th Annual Health Literacy Conference
Health Literacy Award Nomination Form

Please share your reasons for nominating this project and the role of the nominee.

(Limit your response to 150 words or less.)

Describe the project details, including background, objectives, approach, and project dates.

(Limit your response to 150 words or less.)

INSTITUTE for HEALTHCARE ADVANCEMENT

IHA's 17th Annual Health Literacy Conference
Health Literacy Award Nomination Form

Describe the project's impact on the target community. Please list specific outcomes.
(Limit your response to 150 words or less.)

Describe the project's impact on health literacy and its applicability to other settings.
(Limit your response to 150 words or less.)